Fixation point is point where the eye stayed for a short while. Saccadic move is the fast movement of the eye from one fixation point to the next.